Remember the Children

Honoring the missing children of the Rapid City Indian Boarding School

“ There were over 400 US government funded and often church run, Indian Boarding Schools. Thousands of children died of abuse and neglect at these schools, most of them left in unmarked graves and forgotten. This is one story... The Rapid City Indian Boarding School ”

Future site of the Children's Memorial

Remember the Children... You are not forgotten...
You are our Sacred Ones... You can Come Home Now...

...and a small voice whispers, "They found us."

Painting by Whitney Gould of the We'koqma'q First Nation
